Biographical Note
Dr. Ron Juliette was a Professor in the Communications Media Department, College of Education and Educational Technology, at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) for 32 years. In 1968, he graduated from IUP with his undergraduate degree in Social Science Education. He earned his MA and EdD in Instructional Systems Technology from Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana. In 1972, he started teaching photography and media production at IUP in Indiana, Pennsylvania.

During his tenure at IUP, Dr. Juliette served as an elected representative to the University Senate, where he chaired the University-wide Undergraduate Curriculum Committee and served as Chair of the University Senate. He has produced numerous videotapes and multi-media presentations, and his photographs and articles have appeared in numerous publications and professional journals. One of his significant publications was Indiana University of Pennsylvania Our Homage and Our Love (1991), Call Number: LD2485 J85 1991 (Special Collections), which Dr. Juliette co-authored with IUP History Professor Dr. Dale E. Landon. Photographs from this collaborative project were donated by Dr. Juliette as part of Record Group 78: The Ronald Juliette Collection of IUP Photographic History. After 32 years of teaching at IUP, Dr. Juliette retired in 2004.

Scope and Content
The collection is housed in one archival box, and it is an accumulation of Dr. Juliette’s research into the photography studios, photographers, and the photographic industry that existed in Indiana, Pennsylvania, during the 19th and 20th centuries. The collection consists of various types of materials: correspondence, notes, addresses, interviews, a tape of the interview, manuscripts from Dr. Juliette, manuscripts of other writers, business cards, letters, newspaper clippings, negatives, and new and antique photographs. The Juliette Indiana Photographer Collection is a rich resource of primary materials that offer an in-depth historical review of the photographic industry in Indiana, Pennsylvania. In addition, it provides primary materials about many prominent Indiana citizens in the 19th and 20th centuries.
