Biographical Note
Gail Willard Pringle (March 6, 1897-July 5, 1981) married Ruth Foster Pringle (February 5, 1899-March 19, 1977) on June 27, 1925. They had two children – Robert G. Pringle and Margaret Pringle Harmon. They lived at 1004 First Street in Meadville, Pennsylvania, and in addition to being active in other civic organizations, Gail Pringle was past master of the Crawford Lodge #234 F. & A.M., and Ruth Pringle was a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Born in Tiona, Warren County, Pennsylvania, Gail Willard Pringle was the son of Robert A. Pringle (June 28, 1866-May 12, 1951) and his wife Sarah Francis McCalmont Pringle (June 15, 1866-December 19, 1951). He attended Rocky Grove High School. After serving in World War One, he graduated from Allegheny College in Meadville, Pennsylvania in 1922. Gail Pringle was employed by Joy Manufacturing, and the Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company from 1922-1939. From 1939 until he retired in 1962, he was employed by the Talon Division of Textron as a design engineer. Gail Pringle also taught engineer drafting at the Meadville Area Vocational-Technical School.
