Records of the Indiana County Central Labor Council, Manuscript Group 44
Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Special Collections and University Archives
2 boxes; 2 linear feet

Biographical Note
The Indiana County Central Labor Council, affiliated with the state of Pennsylvania AFL-CIO, provides a united front for the many labor organizations in Pennsylvania. During each session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly, the Council adopted a legislative agenda, which included lobbying for services and benefits for all working and non-working citizens of Pennsylvania. The Council insisted upon a non-partisan front, supporting principles rather than any one political candidate or party.
