Political History Publications about Vietnam and Communism; Manuscript Group 92
Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Special Collections and University Archives
3 boxes; 3 linear ft

Scope and Content
The publications in this collection were donated by Mike Stout, who was the Grievance Committee Chairman for United Steelworkers of America (USWA) Local 1397 during the early and mid-1980s. The publications contained in this collection were originally part of Manuscript Group 62, the papers of the United Steelworkers of America Local Union 1397 of Homestead, Pennsylvania.

The collection represents the accumulated archive of anti-war publications focusing on Communism and the Vietnam War. This collection was formed in the 1960s-1970s by Walter Teague during the formation of two anti-war committees created by concerned citizens, the U.S. Committee to Aid the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam, which later became the IndoChina Solidarity Committee.

The publications focus on two general topics: the Vietnam War and Communism, and range in publication dates from the 1940s to the 1970s, with the majority centering on the decade from 1965 to 1975. The materials were arranged alphabetically by topic within each series, except for Series A that was arranged by publication number. The publications come in the form of hard and soft-cover books, as well as pamphlets, numbering 208 publications.

Series Description
Series A: Vietnamese Studies Files
Series A contains publications from the Vietnamese Studies Series. They were published between 1965 and 1974 by the North Vietnamese government out of Hanoi. There are 32 volumes, focusing on the history of Vietnam and the Vietnam War.

Series B: American, Canadian, Cuban, Korean, and Southeast-Asian Publications
Series B includes various publications concerning the Vietnam War, Korea, as well socialist and communist issues. The books and pamphlets are listed in alphabetical order by the nation of origin, or by the country the publication discusses. The publications range in date from the late 1960s to the early 1970s.

Series C: Vladimir Lenin (1870-1924), Karl Marx (1818-1883), Friedrich Engels (1820-1895), Joseph Stalin (1878-1953), the Soviet Union and additional publications concerning communism
Series C contains books and pamphlets about the history of communism, the Soviet Union, and its leaders and founders. There are also publications from and about countries other than the Soviet Union, such as Albania and China. The series contains forty books and pamphlets, with publication dates ranging from the 1940s to the late 1970s.

Provenance
This collection was initially donated by Mike Stout, but was originally collected by Walter Teague as part of the Vietnam Anti-War Movement of the 1960s-1970s.
